

LITTLETON.

July 25, 1904.

Cora Roush has been very sick. Threshers are busy. Hay harvest is nearly over.

The neighborhood was shocked last week to hear of the death of Albert Shaffer, of near Nevins. Albert was loved by all who knew him. The family have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

"I think, my dear," remarked the party boss, "I have found a man to sweep the State."

"Fine!" she replied: "but can you find a girl to sweep the parlor?" Confronted once more with this issue the strong frame of the great statesman shook with anguish.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by The W. R. Smith Co., Druggists.

His rich uncle had just died. "I am undecided," he mused, as he fingered over a big roll of bills, "whether to go to St. Louis and live at a hotel, buy an automobile and let the garage people repair it, or purchase a nice beefsteak."

Domestic Troubles.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25c at The W. R. Smith Co. Drug Store.

Hicks—I do not try to be polite, but I seem to be forgetting my manners. Wicks—What's the matter now? Hicks—I have just gave a woman my seat in the street car and forgot to thank her for taking it.

Wonderful Nerves.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, scalds, sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c at The W. R. Smith Co., Druggists.

Obituary.

Elizabeth Hiser was born in Highland county, Ohio, September 20, 1823, and died at the home of her son, J. M. Williams, in Mt. Sterling, July 17, 1904, aged 80 years, 9 months and 18 days.

She was united by marriage to Wm. Williams September 25, 1842, to which union were born three children. The husband having died in 1897, after 55 years of companionship, the last six years of her life were spent in the home of her son.

In the early part of her married life she united with the Dunkard or German Church and remained a consistent member of that sect through all the vicissitudes of her long life. The well-worn leaves of the family Bible attested the interest she took in the plan of salvation, and she lived in the fullest confidence of the pardoning and saving power of the Lord Jesus.

A short funeral service was held in Mt. Sterling by Rev. Swan, assisted by Rev. Mann and the Presbyterian quartet, July 18, after which the remains were taken to Elmville, Dunkard Church in Highland county, where services were held by Rev. William Calvert. The remains were laid to rest beside her husband in the church cemetery.—Mt. Sterling Tribune.

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbett, of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at The W. R. Smith Co., druggists.

Rector—I am so glad to see you are such a constant attendant at church, Patrick.

Patrick—Oh, I en'jys it, sorr. I sits me down and lays me legs up and thinks o' nothing.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by The W. R. Smith Co., Druggists.

"Miss Passe has a gold dollar that was given to her on her first birthday. She wouldn't part with it for anything." "Of course not; old coins are valuable."

"No, I don't want any sea serpents," said the proprietor of the Ocean Beach Hotel.

"You have to have something to amuse the boarders," said the old salt. "I know," replied the hotel man, "and I have it. One of our guests, who is deaf and dumb, goes in swimming every morning, and the people think he is Judge Parker."

Kirkaly's Spectacle.

Kirkaly's Louisiana Purchase Spectacle, now playing at the Odeon Theater, St. Louis, Mo., is a great spectacular production, and if the business management is in keeping with the stage direction, must prove a money-maker. The show was given the first presentation Saturday evening, May 28, and immediately won favor. Bolesy Kirkaly, under whose personal direction the work has been largely prepared, has combined a force of 150 persons with an equal number of trained ballet dancers and specialty performers from the East, and the result is a most pleasing and entertaining spectacle. The big spectacle will run indefinitely as a World's Fair attraction.

Seats may be reserved four weeks in advance by mailing post office money order to Roy Crawford, Manager Press Bureau Department, Odeon Theater, St. Louis, Mo. Prices are 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50; box seats $2.00; matinees, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.—St. Louis Mirror.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This remedy is certain to be needed in almost every home before the summer is over. It can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is especially valuable for summer disorders in children. It is pleasant to take and never fails to give prompt relief. Why not buy it now? It may save life. For sale by The W. R. Smith Co., Druggists.

"You say that the Smiths were forced to leave the Tallston flats because of the 'no children' rule? Why, they have no children!" "Well, they had old man Smith living with them, and he was childless."

Safeguard the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by The W. R. Smith Co., Druggists.

"Just for a joke, Giddish called up the fire department and said the Cuyaboga building was on fire, when it wasn't at all."

"What did the department do?" "Called Giddish down."

Romeo was climbing the ladder.

"There's plenty of room at the top," he murmured.

"Oh, I don't know," sighed Juliet; "there's apt to be something of a squeeze here."

And when they rushed to a clinch, Romeo discovered that womanly intuition is indeed reliable.

THE EXHIBITION CAPACITY.

Of the Ohio State Fair, and Completeness of Building and Space Arrangement.

The Ohio State Fair, which this year opens at Columbus on Monday, August 29, to continue until the evening of Friday, September 2, has completed exhibition capacity and general arrangements, unequalled by any other State Fair.

All the exposition buildings are extensive in capacity, elegant in design, ample in accommodations and marvels of completeness. These buildings are located with a view to ease of access in covering the rounds of the many departments of the Fair and are in harmony with the park effects of the beautiful grounds upon which they have been erected.

The exhibition facilities, by reason of which the best of exhibits are attracted for each of the well arranged departments, stamp the Ohio State Fair as a complete industrial exposition, and there are none better, or more comprehensive and instructive in every detail, class and division. These buildings contain a total of more than 400,000 square feet of exhibition space.

The exhibits are not all encompassed within the exposition buildings. On open grounds, correctly planned, will be found the exhibits proper to be shown in the open, and unusually found at the large national exhibitions, such as portable engines, steam rollers and crushers, grinders, steam presses, hay loaders and carriers, hydraulic apparatus, saw mills, dethachers and road machinery, fending, etc.

To show this class of exhibits about ten acres of ground are required, but the display made is a great exposition in itself.

In the general make-up of the Ohio State Fair, the exciting and amusing features are never neglected, while never of a character that cannot be approved and enjoyed by all classes. It is recognized that the people attend the Fair for a dual purpose, the benefits to be derived from an inspection of the exhibits, and the pleasures afforded by the features of amusement and entertainment. The forthcoming Fair will contain no weak places and none that will not be worthy the attention of every visitor.

The location of Columbus as a direct railway center and the low rates that have been secured over every line during the entire week of the Fair together with the great facilities of the city for affording accommodation to strangers within her gates, makes it possible for the people to attend at very moderate expense, and with certainty of being well cared for as well as highly entertained.

"She associates with the salt of the earth."

"Perhaps that is why her face is always in a discontented pucker."

"Does your wife ever say anything that she's sorry for?"

"No; she's sorry if she doesn't say anything."
